

McGuire's Running Club

To all McGuire's Runners:

Thanks everyone for helping us celebrate our birthday!

Hundreds of runners showed their support yesterday and we thank you. We even got a surprise visit from Les (our founder).

We would like to thank McGuire's Irish Pub for all of their generosity yesterday as well as the last 4 years. For those who were not able to attend, the pub provided us with FREE seafood gumbo, FREE beer for 2 hours, and 2 free large cakes...

I little birdie told me that the seafood gumbo was prepared from scratch and cooked all day. They doubled up on the senate bean soup the day before so they could cook the seafood gumbo for us in the "big pot". The seafood gumbo had crab, shrimp, fish, and clams and was delicious.

Also, the waitresses should be commended for their hard work. They were constantly bringing in pitchers of beer to ensure that no one would go without. And we all know how important that is.

Without this kind of support, we would not have the running club so please remember to tip and thank the staff.

See you next Tuesday!
